REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

The town has been unusually free from contagious diseases during the past year.

Only one case of measles has occurred which, owing, perhaps to observance of our quarantine laws, did not spread its contagion

Two deaths from Pulmonary Tuberculosis required the disinfection of the premises on which they occurred.

The appearance in our midst of a dog, since found to be infected with Hydrophobia, presented a danger to which we have not been accustomed.

The prompt action of the selectmen in ordering that all dogs in town should be muzzled or restrained was a step that would seem to very nearly remove all danger if it be strictly obeyed.

The very indefinite time that the disease may be carried by an animal before it develops makes it necessary for us to use the greatest care for a long time in order to insure our safety.

Every animal owner must see that it is better to be unreasonably careful than that one human being should be infected with this terrible disease.

REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT.

Gentlemen of the Board of Education :—

I submit herewith the report of the schools since they came under my supervision. The first work that presented itself after my election was the need of so revising our High School course of study that it would meet the approval of the state superintendent. After consultation with that official two courses were provided which met his approval and also seemed the best adapted for the needs of Henniker.

In carrying this course into effect only those pupils entering the High School this year came under its requirements. The former pupils were classified in accordance with the requirements of the preceding course, but owing to the fact that the senior class were deficient in one entire subject, Geometry, and felt it would be impossible to do the extra work necessary to complete their course, there will be no graduating class this year.

The Principal and assistant in the High School both began their work with us in September. Judging from the advance in good discipline and industry during the first half year I predict a marked advance in the work done both in quality and quantity. One other new teacher, Miss Reynolds of the Intermediate room, began her duties in September and is proving a success. All other teachers in the Central school and in the mixed schools had been with us formerly. One of our teachers has refused an offer of eight dollars a month more than her present salary by the superintendent of another district, but loyally refused the offer to complete the year with us. As much as we appreciate such loyalty we are yet compelled to realize that few teachers can afford to make such sacrifices and that our mixed schools must suffer from the inevitable selection unless we are enabled to meet this competition by equal wages.

Two bills now before the Legislature materially affects Henniker in their provisions. The first bill requires a school year of not less than thirty weeks, the other provides for the state certification of teachers. The result of each, if made a law, will be beneficial to the schools but will require a greater outlay of school funds.

The work of your superintendent has been concentrated upon the effort to organize the schools so that the best work may be done for the money spent. Any question of a change in text books or the purchase of more of those already in use has been considered with the idea of what was the most economical measure that would provide the best results. The purchase of new material for instruction which your body has made will, I am convinced, meet this test.

The school buildings are in excellent repair, and equipped with a fair supply of reference books, maps, etc. The number of pupils enrolled in September was 202. The maximum number in the last report—the figures in which refer of course to two years ago—was 217. It is interesting to notice that there are at present in the mixed schools two more and in the Central school seventeen less than two years ago.

I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation of the hearty co-operation of the teachers, of the strong interest in the school manifested by the townspeople, and for the readiness of the Board to give of their time and advice for the best welfare of the schools.

Respectfully submitted,

F. C. JOHNSON.

TRUANT OFFICER'S REPORT 1905.

To the School Board of Henniker :—

The undersigned, having completed the enumeration of children between the ages of five and sixteen years, as required by law, respectfully submits the following report :—

Henniker, Oct. 12, 1906.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

In accordance with the somewhat unexpected vote of the district at its last annual meeting and at the urgent solicitation of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction the School Board took action early in the year toward the formation of a supervisory district and the employment of a Superintendent, "Who shall give his whole time to the duties of said office."

At Hillsboro June 4, a meeting of the Boards of Antrim, Hillsboro Special and Henniker was called by the State Superintendent and organized by the choice of H. H. Hurlin of Antrim, Pres., Mrs. L. E. Annis of Hillsboro, Sec., and Dr. Sanborn as Treas.

This supervisory board immediately solicited applications from candidates for the position of District Superintendent. The school boards of the three towns again met at Hillsboro July 7, at the call of Pres. Hurlin, and from a large list of applicants made choice of Frank C. Johnson who began his duties at once and whose report to date is here included.

Contrary to the expectation of many, the duties of your local board, in this initial year of expert supervision, have been increased rather than diminished and its members have devoted more time to the consideration of school affairs than in any other single year of recent history.

Previous to the appointment of Supt. Johnson, a visit to our high school by the State Superintendent developed the fact that it was not up to his standard of an "Approved School" and we were informed that it must be better equipped, or we as a town, would become liable for the tuition, outside of Henniker, for such of our pupils as wished to fit for college.

We immediately procured the suggested apparatus and, after the appointment of our local Superintendent, secured his advice regarding the remodelling of our course of study to meet the demands of the State Department. More apparatus was purchased and still additional requirements must be met in the immediate future. We have been recently informed that the standard of an "Approved School" may be materially advanced the coming year.

During the seventeen years that we have maintained a high school we find that an average of about twenty-five per cent of the pupils of the town have entered it, and that seventy have graduated therefrom; of this number seven, or ten per cent of its graduates, have entered college or only two and one-half per cent of our school population for the period covered.

With these facts and figures from past experience it becomes a question that should be carefully and seriously considered, whether if economical conditions require that our appropriation for schools be confined to its present limits, that exact justice might not demand that more attention be given the 97 1-2 per cent even though the 2 1-2 percent might suffer thereby.

The requirements of the law and our own desire and interest make it incumbent on the district to support a high school that shall qualify our young people for the duties of citizenship and fit them for business life, but we must realize that such a school can only be permanently successful by careful preparation in the lower grades and in the mixed schools.

Because of possible legislation regarding schools now pending, to which our District Superintendent refers, we have thought it wise to defer our annual meeting to a later date than usual, that our voters may act with better intelligence upon the matters before them. In this connection we would earnestly solicit a larger representation of our voting population than recent years have witnessed.

The appropriation and judicious expenditure of four or five thousand dollars and the determination of our school policy for a year's time are too important matters to be decided by the very small number usually present.

The roll of honor and statistics are for the school year ending June 1906.

REPORT OF TUCKER FREE LIBRARY.

The third annual report of the Tucker Free Library is herewith presented. It is with pleasure that we record the prosperity of the library. During the year two hundred books have been acquired by purchase, twenty-two by binding and sixty-eight by gift. Of those purchased, one hundred and four were fiction, fifty-six for young people and forty solid reading, the most valuable being the Americana Encyclopedia of sixteen volumes, Farbell's Life of Lincoln in four volumes and ten volumes of orations. The library needs a good dictionary. We have none at present. Of the twenty-two books bound, eighteen were Harper's Magazines. We have Harper's complete from 1880 to 1907 with the exception of 1897-1898-1899. We shall be very glad if any friend of the library will donate these numbers or any of the earlier ones. The gifts this year have been very liberal and consist of nearly all solid reading, the largest single gift having been twenty-two books from E. B. Lawrence, sixteen books from C. B. Childs and seven from Mrs. Warren Foster.

DONORS OF BOOKS.

Rev. N. F. Carter, Concord; Nathan P. Sanborn, Massachusetts; Mrs. Sarah Richardson, Mrs. A. R. Clark, Dr. G. H. Sanborn, Mrs. C. B. Childs, E. B. Lawrence class of '58 Dartmouth; Rev. F. A. Balcom, Rev. Stephen Breed, C. B. Childs, Geo. H. Dodge, Mrs. Lucy Connor, Mrs. Warren Foster, Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, N. H. State Library, U. S. Government.

DONERS OF MAGAZINES AND PAMPHLETS.

Mrs. Fred Whitney, Mrs. C. B. Childs, Rev. F. A. Balcom, Mrs. George Colby, Mrs. Madison, Department of Forestry, N. H. Agricultural College.

MAGAZINES SUBSCRIBED FOR.

Country Life, Harper's Monthly, Century, Review of Reviews, World's Work, Outing, Scientific American, Literary Digest, Granite State, Ladies' Home Journal, Woman's Home Companion, Everybody's, American, McClure's, Munsey's, Outlook, St. Nicholas, Little Folks, Cosmopolitan.

GIFTS.

Travel Magazine from S. E. Huntington, Outlook from Miss Anna Newton, Everybody's, Mrs. Emma and Millie Preston. Two fine pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Fisher have been placed upon the wall, the gift of the children. A gift of valuable and beautiful china has been received from Miss Fidelia Carter and Mrs. Ella Clough and it will be placed in the Historical Room as soon as the cabinets are procured. We have had at the library "The Anti-Tuberculosis and Health Exhibit" from the State Hospital, a subject on which everyone should be informed. We expect later in the season, an exhibit of the Brown Tail and Gipsy Moth from the N. H. Agricultural College and we hope all will avail themselves of the opportunity to learn about the insects.

During the winter a "Story Hour" for the children has been given every Saturday afternoon from 1.30 till 2.00 and has proved very popular with the young people. Harry B. Preston, Rev. Mr. Bouton, Rev. Mr. Trow, Rev. Mr. Balcom, Miss Reynolds, Miss Towle and Miss Carr have given very interesting talks and there will be several more.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE TUCKER FREE LIBRARY.

I would say that very little change has occurred in the financial condition of the library funds since the report of 1906, all securities remaining the same except money invested in the Savings Banks of the state. The accumulation of dividends from this source are added to the invested funds of the library securities. Nothing has been used for the maintenance of the library and the payment of annuities except the income from stocks and bonds and the appropriation from the town. The citizens can see by the itemized account of the disbursements that the annuities are paid promptly and are a large item of the cash paid out. It has been thought best by the trustees to allow some of the income of the funds to remain unused to make up for any loss which might arise from shrinkage on securities, as all high grade bonds which are listed above par grow nearer to their par value as they mature.

Following will be found a list of the
